HWE

PRESENTING TO

Howard Group

Sales Strategy

Target Buyers & Marketing Approach

Grand Boulevard reflects decades of investment by Howard Group, and the right buyer for these hotels should reflect the same long-term ownership mentality and high-quality standard. HWE will target well-capitalized, quality-focused owners with the reputation and operating capability to run and maintain these hotels at a level comparable to the high standard of Grand Boulevard. Over the past 36 months, nearly 80% of HWE's hotel sales have closed with private investors and family owner-operators. These are the buyers we know best.

PRIMARY TARGETS

- Family Offices & Private Investors: Long-term holders looking for stable, recently renovated real estate with a durable location advantage. Because two of the three hotels were renovated in 2023–2024, near-term capital needs are minimal to modest for the Hyatt Place, which suits a hold-oriented owner.
- Established Owner-Operators: Proven select-service and lifestyle operators with the reputation and operating depth to run all three hotels well and potentially move one or more to an up-market positioning in the future. These groups can also capture the efficiencies of operating the hotels together.

SECONDARY TARGETS

- Institutional & Private Equity Capital: Selectively invited to add competitive tension on price and terms. Each group will be evaluated on how well they fit with Howard Group's vision.

Target Buyers & Marketing Approach

HWE will market the portfolio broadly. The groups below represent some investors we view as most likely to pursue the opportunity.

Marketing Approach

Confidential, targeted launch

Pre-qualified groups review the opportunity under confidentiality agreements, protecting the hotels' associates and operations throughout the process.

Competition among the right buyers

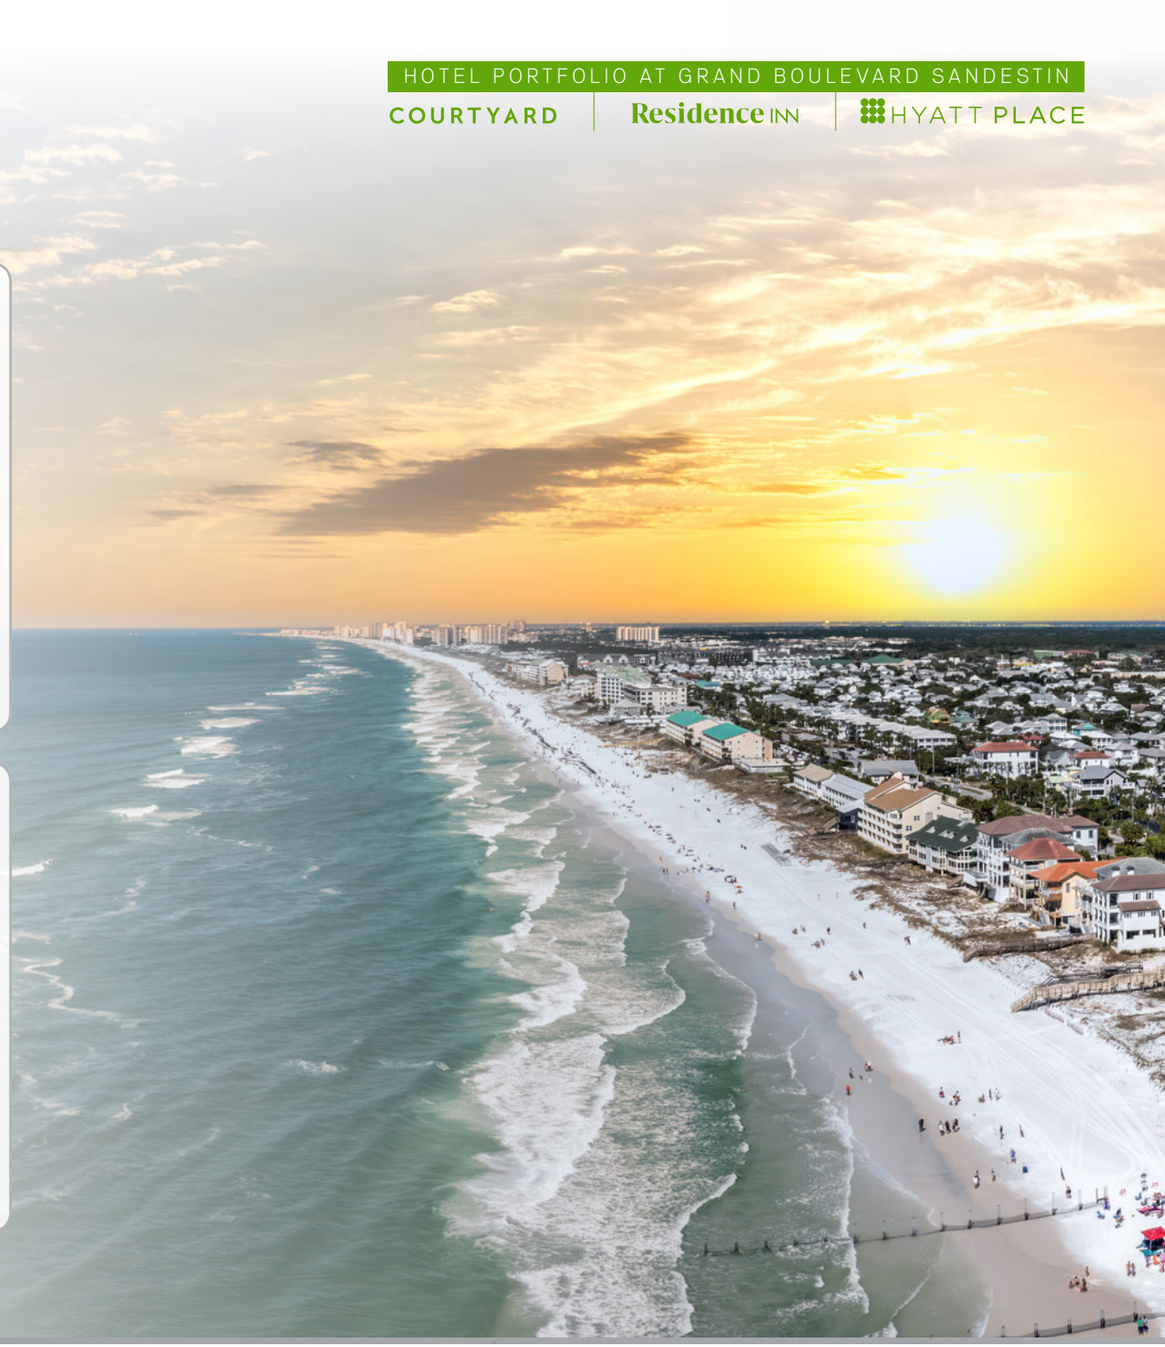

HWE will market to a broad but vetted group of qualified buyers, giving ownership real choice and pricing tension from groups it would be comfortable transacting with.

Portfolio and individual offers

HWE will solicit offers on the full portfolio and on each hotel individually, so ownership can compare portfolio pricing against the sum of the parts.

Selection beyond price

Howard Group will make the final buyer selection, weighing price, certainty of close, and each buyer's reputation and operating track record.

Investment Highlights

THE ONLY HOTELS WITHIN GRAND BOULEVARD

The three hotels are the only lodging within Grand Boulevard, the highest-end retail destination between Pensacola and Jacksonville, where retail sales average approximately $850 PSF heading to $1,000. With more than 200 events a year and Class A office on site, Grand Boulevard generates year-round demand for the hotels well beyond the beach season. A buyer would also gain a relationship with Howard Group and the potential to develop or co-develop an additional high-quality hotel within Grand Boulevard.

Investment Highlights

MARKET-LEADING PERFORMANCE

All three hotels rank #1 in occupancy within their competitive sets and achieve RevPAR premiums of 15% to 37%. The Residence Inn leads with a RevPAR index of 137, up from 110 in 2022. Combined, the portfolio ran approximately 76% occupancy and $114 RevPAR over the trailing 12 months ended August 2026, with RevPAR projected to reach approximately $127 by Year Three (2029).

Investment Highlights

HIGH-BARRIER, AFFLUENT MARKET

South Walton's visitors are as affluent as its residents. Visitor households average $197,500 in income, and one-third earn more than $200,000. Miramar Beach sits within the most affluent stretch of the Florida Panhandle. Resident households average $170,339 in income, nearly double Fort Walton Beach ($89,319), only 15 miles west. That wealth supports premium rates and steady demand, and new competition is limited: protected land constrains development, and rooms under construction equal just 1.3% of submarket inventory.

Investment Highlights

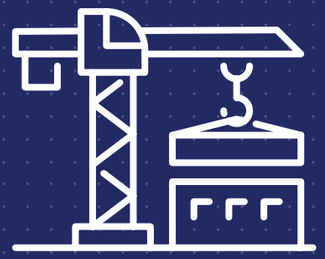

RENOVATED, LOW-CAPEX ASSETS

The Residence Inn and Courtyard completed approximately $11.8 million in renovations in 2023–2024, and the Hyatt Place opened in 2018. All three are built-to-last concrete construction with minimal to modest (in the case of the Hyatt Place) near-term capital needs.

BRAND DIVERSITY, MANAGEMENT FLEXIBILITY

The portfolio combines Marriott and Hyatt flags across extended-stay and select-service product. The two Marriott properties have near-term brand flexibility, giving a new owner the choice to commit to a long-term license and negotiate key money or to pursue a repositioning. All three hotels are unencumbered of management.

Upside Opportunities

- Consolidated operations: an estimated $300,000 - $500,000 in annual savings
- Courtyard repositioning to a lifestyle soft brand
- New revenue: parking and resort fees
- Seasonal beach shuttle
- Key money on brand renewals

Listing Agreement & Key Terms

HWE proposes a commission of 1.5% of the gross sales price, plus reimbursement of marketing expenses up to $20,000. The listing period would be 12 months, renewing automatically month to month thereafter.
