Why Hodges Ward Elliott

For more than 50 years, Hodges Ward Elliott (“HWE”) has been the premier hospitality capital markets advisor. The firm has closed approximately $100 billion in hotel transactions, including more than $50 billion since 2015, and has ranked among the nation’s top hotel brokers every year since 2019. Over that time, HWE has built extensive direct relationships with the family offices, private owner-operators, private equity funds and REITs that buy hotels. We work exclusively for sellers, and we use those relationships to create competition for every asset we bring to market. In Florida, that approach has set records, including the highest per-key hotel sale in Tampa history.

- 50+ years of experience. Approximately $100 billion in hotel transactions.
- Direct access to family offices, private owner-operators, private equity funds and REITs.
- Exclusive seller representation that creates competition with proven national and international reach.
- Clients return to Hodges Ward Elliott because our sales process consistently uncovers the highest sales price from top quality purchasers.
